

Arturo and the Glitter Glue

Written by Elaine Williams
Illustrated by Hannah Sames

It is a dark, still night, nothing stirs in the house, except for a bold, adventurous mouse...

This rhyming story takes young children on a daring night time hunt for treasure with Arturo, a little mouse with big ideas. But the situation is about to get sticky. For Balou, the cat, has just arrived home and she is on a hunt of her own. Arturo must use all of his courage and creativity to escape in a whirlwind chase through the shadowy house. It's not the first time they've met, but will it be the last?

"An absolutely gorgeous picture book from NZ author, Elaine Williams, this is a wonderful tale that's reminiscent of The Tale of Despereaux and The Borrowers."
Unity Books Wellington

"This picture book is an absolute joy to read and is a fine addition to the bookshelf."
